

Worksheet 1

Eye of the Idol

To, Too or Two?

The word 'to' is a homophone. This means that it can be spelt in different ways (too and two) but they sound exactly the same! They also have different meanings:

- to – for example, I went to the park.
- too – for example, I want to come too! OR or I ate too much cake.
- two – for example, I have two arms.

1. Can you decide if to, too or two goes into these sentences?

a. There was not a moment _____ lose.

b. The current was _____ strong.

c. Luke saw a mountain with _____ caves.

d. Luke hated snakes. He hated crocodiles _____.

e. Luke saw _____ crocodiles.

f. The cliff was _____ steep to climb.

g. He came _____ a giant arch covered with cobwebs.

h. The idol had _____ eyes made of giant diamonds.

i. The man with the moustache was _____ greedy to heed Luke's warning.

j. Luke walked back _____ the village.

2. What do you think Luke is going to do with the eye of the idol?
