

THE THREE LITTLE PIGS

(The scene is a dark forest.)

1

Once upon a time there were three little pigs.

2

The time came for them to leave home.

3

Their mother said:

4

“Always do the best you can.”

5

Alas, the first little pig built his house out of straw. Why?
Because it was easy.

6

The second little pig built his house out of sticks. Why? Because it would not take long.

7

But the third little pig built his house out of bricks. He did not mind how long it took. He wanted to be safe. This was a really good idea.

8

One night the big bad wolf came by. He loved to eat fat pigs.

9

The wolf came to the first house, which was built of straw. He called out...

10

“Let me come in! Let me come in! Or I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house in!”

11

“Not by the hair of my chinny chin chin,” said the little pig.

12

So the wolf huffed, and puffed, and blew the house in.

13

But the first little pig ran out the back door. He ran to the brick house and was safe.

14

The wolf came to the house of sticks. He called out...

15

“Let me come in! Let me come in! Or I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house in!”

16

“Not by the hair of my chinny chin chin,” said the little pig.

17

So the wolf huffed, and puffed, and blew the house in.

18

But the second little pig ran out the back door. He ran to the brick house and he was safe too.

19

The wolf came to the house of bricks. He called out...

20

Let me come in! Let me come in! Or I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house in!”

21

“Not by the hair of my chinny chin chin,” said the third little pig.

22

So the wolf huffed, and puffed, and huffed and puffed. But he could not blow the house down.

23

The wolf was sly. Looked at the house. He saw a chimney.

24

“Aha,” he said.

25

But the third little pig was smart. He knew what the wolf was thinking.

26

He put a large pot of hot water on to the fire. He and his brothers waited.

27

The wolf climbed up on the roof of the brick house.

28

He found the chimney. He slid in and ...

29

SPLASH – he fell into the pot.

“Ouch, ouch, ouch...!”

30

The wolf jumped up in terror and ran out of the house as fast as he could.

31

And the three little pigs lived happily ever after!
