

Multiple Choice Questions

The Ugly Duckling

- The ducks in the fowl yard are unhappy with the new duckling because he is
 - too naughty.
 - too ugly.
 - too noisy.
- As a result of being treated badly, the duckling
 - gets angry.
 - chases after the other birds and pecks them.
 - runs away.
- The duckling cannot stay on the lake because he is in danger from
 - farmers.
 - hunters.
 - wild swans.
- Although the farmer is kind
 - his children and wife are mean to the duckling.
 - he wants to eat the duckling.
 - his children hit the duckling.
- At the end of the story, the duckling is so happy because
 - he becomes a friend of the wild swans.
 - he stops worrying about being ugly.
 - he discovers that he is a beautiful swan.

