

Worksheet 1

Subway Hero

Exclamation Marks

An exclamation mark is used at the end of a sentence when something is said suddenly and loudly. Look at these examples from the story:

There's a girl on the tracks!

Someone save her!

Help the kid!

1. The urgency of Michelle's situation caused these people to exclaim these statements suddenly and loudly. Write three statements that you may have exclaimed if you had seen Michelle fall at the subway that day.

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

2. Exclamations are not just for emergencies. What would you exclaim if you experienced the following situations?

a. You have just found a huge birthday present sitting on your bed.

_____

b. You have just seen an amazing stunt show.

_____

c. Your toe has just knocked into a hard door.

_____

d. Your best friend has just hit a home run.

_____