

Subway Hero

Design a Medal

'Everett Sanderson's courageous deeds were written up in the New York newspapers. The subway system gave him a free pass on their trains for the rest of his life. And the city of New York awarded him a medal for bravery.'

In the box below, design a bravery medal for a person that you think has shown incredible courage.

