

Extra Lucky

Word Work

Types of Words

Now you have read "Extra Lucky", can you work with the words in the story?

You will remember that words come in different types. The most common are nouns (the names of things), verbs (words for actions) and adjectives (describing words). Here is an example:

My pet cat (noun) thinks (verb) sardines are delicious (adjective).

Here are words from the story, all mixed up. Can you put them in the correct column below?

best bigger birthday cried dead died dinner dog flowers know lucky nap old ordinary school sick
silly sister sleep sniff thought walked woke worry

NOUNS

VERBS

ADJECTIVES

