

Multiplying Mice

Word Work

Types of Words

Now you have read "Multiplying Mice", can you work on the words in the story?

You will remember that words come in different types. The most common are nouns (the names of things), verbs (words for actions) and adjectives (describing words). Here is an example:

My pet cat (noun) thinks (verb) sardines are delicious (adjective).

Here are words from the story, all mixed up. Can you put them in the correct column below?

babies bad basket cleaned dangerous excited fright happened interesting loves mouse multiplying odd perfect pillow screamed soft started strange teacher toys warned weekends

NOUNS

VERBS

ADJECTIVES